Youth Covenant of Conduct-A covenant is a binding promise; signing a covenant is a serious matter. It is your word and your honor. Please read carefully before you sign.

As a participant in this activity of Oak Grove UMC Youth, I promise to join in the covenant pledge with the other participants. I understand and will abide by the following rules:

I will participate in all activities unless excused by an adult.

I will adhere to the rules and guidelines established by the adult leaders and drivers.

I will not leave any areas designated by boundaries set by the leaders during the trip.

I will not purposefully disrupt event activities with rude, loud, or obnoxious behavior.

I will not commit acts of vandalism & will respect other's property.

I will demonstrate proper cafeteria etiquette.

I will act appropriately with members of the opposite sex. This means no couples alone at any time & no public displays of affection.

I will not bring, purchase, or consume alcohol, tobacco products, or illegal drugs on this trip.

I will not use inappropriate language.

I will arrive at the correct destination at the pre-arranged times.

I understand that I am responsible for any items I bring, such as radios, tape players, etc.

I will take responsibility for my own actions.

I understand that violation of this pledge may result in my early dismissal from this trip and the need for my parents to pick me up.
