

Journey Class Sunday- 9:45 a.m. Room 236 Leader Susan Baker & other group members Now is a great time to check out the Journey class! This class is made up of a diverse group of all ages, marital status, genders and levels of biblical knowledge. The average age range is 30's-70's, but all ages are welcome! This class provides opportunities for Bible study, building relationships, prayer, and service. We have recently begun the study of a book called "The Jesus Priorities". We would love to have you join us!	Wednesday Morning Women's Small Group Wednesdays 9:30 a.m. in the Youth Lounge Leader Anita Carty Our fun and welcoming group meets during the school year to read and discuss a variety of books. This book study is 7 Men and 7 Women and the Secret of their Greatness by Eric Metaxas. Join us for study and fellowship! Women of any age are welcome; group typically ranges from 50's to 80's.
YANSY (Young And Not So Young) Sunday- 9:30 a.m. Room 232 Leader Carol Avenson The YANSY Class (Young and Not So Young) is a group of welcoming and caring people. We care about each other and participate in church and community missions. A typical class begins with a time of sharing joys, prayers, and concerns before an opening prayer. Several class members share the job of facilitating lessons. Our lessons include a video and lively discussion. Our current six-week study is What on Earth Am I Here for? by Rick Warren. Other recent studies have been by Max Lucado, John Ortberg, and Adam Hamilton. Age range of our group members is 40 to 97	BASIC (Brothers and Sisters in Christ) Sunday- 9:45 a.m. Room 234 Leaders James & Stephanie Lee We are a diverse group of adults that learn about Jesus and the Bible through watching short videos and then discussing with a lesson guide. We are not theologians, but ordinary people who study and pray together to collectively grasp an understanding of God through His Word, as well as, become closer with other followers. Our members are of all ages, backgrounds, and knowledge! We welcome you to join us!
Ludie E Williamson Sunday- 9:45a.m. in the library Leader J. Wayne Abernathy LEW is the longest running class at Oak Grove UMC. The founding namesake Ludie Etheridge Williamson was a member of two of the original founding families. Her family farm is the city arboretum, (the old Williamson farm). The class has dwindled in size in the recent years but still has very up to date bible based studies. We currently have 4 regular members, but are always looking for more. We just started our current course of study of the C.S. Lewis book, " The Screwtape letters". Lewis wrote this book from the point of view of a senior demon writing letters to his nephew a novice Demon trying to steal souls for the Father Below. We are covering about 1 letter each week. So, If you are interested in a spiritual Journey with Demons under every tree and around every corner, (and a fun small class), feel free to stop in and add to our chats. (Wayne tends to bring home made treats to class!) Age range of group members is 50 to 80, (it started like YANSY, young and not so young) so any adult young or old can enjoy this class.	Wesleyan Sunday- 9:30 a.m. Room 230 Leader George Bowers Wesleyan Class is a class comprised of a myriad of backgrounds. The class has former teachers, principle, lawyers, retired military, nurses, police offers and vets. Ages of class members range from late forties to mid to late 70's. The subjects that are studied can be straight from the Bible or can be a series based upon study guides expanding upon the scriptures. Additionally, the class has on occasion used video/DVD provided material to study scriptures. The main thrust of any of the lessons selected is to deepen our faith, understand scripture and how it applies to our individual lives that we live each day. We are a very loving and accepting class and will embrace anyone who chooses to attend. Age range of group members: Late 40's to mid to late 70's
Sunday Youth Life Groups Sunday- 5:30 p.m. in the Youth Lounge Leader Roger Peterson The Oak Grove Youth Group meets at 5:30 Sunday evenings and starts off with social time and some snacks! At 6:00 p.m. we break into life groups and discuss various topics that involve our faith journey in our modern world. Not so much a Bible study that we do in Cross Trainers (Sunday School), but we still use the Bible as our guide to addressing the issues of today. Discussions with youth leaders are in confidence, and the life group participants help lift each other up during difficult times. The curriculum varies, but is focused on present day issues facing teenagers. We do many fun activities and events. We invite you to join us! Age range of group members: 6th grade through 12th grade	Youth Sunday School, Cross Trainers Sunday- 9:45 a.m. in the Youth Lounge Leader Mary Knight We follow a variety of curriculum that take a present day view of how the Bible can guide our lives today. Part Bible study part fellowship with games relevant to the lesson. We have a team of amazing teachers, so each Sunday may have a different leader. Join us for fun, learning, and worship! Age range of group members: 6th grade through 12th grade
Builder's Fellowship Sunday- 9:45 a.m. Room 232 Leader Rosser Bunch We invite you to join this study group of senior adults. This class has great fellowship through bible study, discussion, and prayer. Average age range is 60+.	Thursday Morning Small Group Thursday- 7:00 a.m. in the Conference Room Leader Phil Morgan This dedicated group meets early every week to accommodate work schedules. They study a wide variety of interesting books to gain an in-depth Bible study and life application. This is a very active, engaged, and close group of individuals. Any adults are welcome!
